-Current Food Safe Course
-Experience cooking in a commercial environment

-Demonstrated ability to work unsupervised

-Must have a criminal record check and vulnerable sector check

Duties:

St. John Bosco Wilderness Camp is a summer camp for children and a registered charity.

The head cook coordinates and supervises the kitchen. With the assistance of a kitchen assistant, they are responsible to cook three meals a day for between 50 and 150 people.

Salary:

Approximately $400-500/week, based on experience and qualifications and includes room and board. Please contact manager@johnboscocamp.com for further information.

Terms/Hours of Work:

To be determined.

Start Date:

Mid May, exact date to be determined

How to Apply:

If interested, email manager@johnboscocamp.com.

Comments:

Familiarity with large scale cooking, good work ethic and a responsible character are important. The head cook does not need to have experience working as a professional cook. This is a great opportunity for anyone wanting to gain experience running a kitchen in a commercial setting.

St. John Bosco Wilderness Camp is a life changing experience for both the campers and the staff.
